World-Class Patent Quality System at the USPTO

The Right Time for a Greater Focus on Quality

- America Invents Act (AIA) provides a stable budget to pursue quality initiatives
- USPTO continues to reduce patent application inventory and pendency
- IT and other resource improvement initiatives support our employees
- Enhancing patent quality has always been a priority

World-Class Patent Quality System for our Stakeholders

The Right Time for a Greater Focus on Quality

- With AIA Post-Grant Reviews by the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB), issued patents can be under greater scrutiny
- Non-practicing entities continue to be a concern to the public; frivolous lawsuits hurt the IP system as well as the economy
- With clarity of patent rights comes certainty in patent rights making IP-intensive industries stronger
- USPTO has always made patent quality a priority

Proposed Federal Register Initiatives

I. Excellence in work products
   1. Applicant requests prosecution review of selected applications
   2. Automated pre-examination search
   3. Clarity of the record

II. Excellence in measuring patent quality
   4. Review/improvements to quality metrics

III. Excellence in customer service
   5. Review of current compact prosecution model and effect on quality
   6. In-person interview capability with all examiners

Enhanced Patent Quality Initiative

Leading in Quality Excellence – Every Interaction Counts

Intellectual property (IP) intensive industries support at least $9 trillion add to the US, and contribute more than $5 trillion - or nearly 25% - to our gross domestic product. Our new quality initiative comes at a time of increased recognition and appreciation around the world of the importance of IP.

The dedicated efforts of our employees over the last few years have significantly reduced our patent application backlog and pendency. We want to continue to build on those efforts, and recent America Invents Act (AIA) legislation passed by Congress supports doing just that.

The AIA allows us to set our fees and retain fees collected above our appropriated level. This means our financial health is more stable than in the past, giving us a unique opportunity to further expand our quality efforts throughout the entire process.

The goal of our Enhanced Patent Quality Initiative (EPQI) is to:

- Build more confidence in our patent system by enhancing patent quality;
- Make the system understandable and usable by all inventors; and
- Ensure each of our customers is treated fairly and professionally throughout the patent application process.

Building an Enhanced Patent Quality System

Our Enhanced Patent Quality Initiative is focused in three areas, termed the "patent quality pillars."

Pillar 1 – Excellence in Work Products.
Provide the best work products and services at every stage of the patent process.

Pillar 2 – Excellent in Measuring Patent Quality.
Provide excellence in measuring patent quality ensuring appropriate quality metrics and clear guidance.

Pillar 3 – Excellence in Customer Service.
Improve the customer experience with emphasis on excellent customer service.

These pillars were selected to enable the Office to target its efforts in enhancing patent quality in specific ways. Additionally, they help to frame and facilitate the conversation about enhanced patent quality.

Evolution Programs of the Enhanced Patent Quality Initiative

In response to various requests for feedback on the Enhanced Patent Quality Initiative from both internal and external stakeholders, we received many substantive suggestions. Responsive to these suggestions, we are considering several programs – these programs are divided into three sub-groups: 1) data analysis; 2) examiners’ resources, tools and training; and 3) changes to examination processes and products. The programs being considered are:
